The Latin American Studies Program

Mural Introduction and Reception
March 10, 2015 (Tuesday)
5:30 pm d’Alzon Library
Special Guests: Mr. Raúl Erazo,
Consul General of Ecuador, New Haven, CT;
and Carlos A. Jáuregui, University of Notre Dame

Public Lecture: Ecuador the Nation and the Mural
March 11, 2015 (Wednesday)
6:30 pm la Maison Salon
Keynote Speaker: Carlos A. Jáuregui, Associate Professor of Latin American Literature and Anthropology at the University of Notre Dame

An Interdisciplinary Conversation on Guayasamín and Latin American Art and Culture
March 17, 2015 (Tuesday)
6:00 pm Kennedy 112
Round Table Discussion includes:
Margherita Tortora, Yale University
Luis Marentes, UMASS Amherst
Tobi Norris, Assumption College
Juan Ramos, College of the Holy Cross

SEND Ecuador: Lessons from trip to Durán, Guayaquil
March 19, 2015 (Thursday)
6:00 pm d’Alzon Library
Student dialogue led by Arianny Díaz and Myra Zhinin

Art in Motion
Guayasamín’s Ecuador Unframed
A Traveling Mural Exhibit
Organized by the University of Notre Dame
March 10, 2015– March 27, 2015

Contact: Prof. Juan Carlos Grijalva at jgrijalv@assumption.edu

Supported by: Art, Music and Theatre • Campus Ministry • Center for Teaching Excellence
Emmanuel d’Alzon Library • Information Technology • Modern and Classical Languages and Cultures
Sociology, Criminology and Anthropology • Notre Dame Club of Worcester County

This exhibition was organized by Tatiana Botero, Elena Mangione-Lora, Rachel Parroquín, and Andrea Topash-Ríos with expertise from Carlos A. Jáuregui.