Assumption College
Women’s Studies Program
presents

Empowerment and Submission

The Political Culture of Catholic Women’s Religious Communities in Nineteenth-Century America

Dr. Sarah Mulhall Adelman
Framingham State University
Department of History
Recipient of the American Society of Church History’s Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize

At a time when women in the United States were excluded from participating in the civic electoral system, nineteenth-century Catholic sisters voted in elections, held offices, and enacted a complex political culture...

Thursday
October 20, 2016
5:30-7:00
Kennedy 119

Co-Sponsored by the History Department

Mission San Carlos, Monterey, ca. 1903.
Image courtesy University of Southern California Libraries and California Historical Society