Overnight Accommodations
Reunion attendees will be housed in the Living/Learning Center (Class of 2009 in West Hall), which features air-conditioned, suite-style accommodations (four single beds per room), and a refrigerator. All alumni must be registered for their Class event/dinner to stay on campus.

Please send names of requested roommates with your paid reservation. If no request is received, a roommate will be assigned. Housing will be assigned on a first-paid, first-served basis.

If you require a late check-in, call the Alumni Office prior to June 6 to make special arrangements.

All overnight guests are responsible for key loss and damage.

What to Bring/Wear
Bring a bathing suit for a dip in the Plourde Recreation Center swimming pool, a camera, comfortable walking shoes and your enthusiasm.

Food Allergies
Please let us know prior to June 6 to make special arrangements.

Cancellations
No refunds will be made after June 6, 2014.

Off Campus
For golf, museums, jogging routes, etc. please visit www.worcester.org for a complete listing.

Connect
Join the Alumni Relations Networking/Job Posting Web site ACConnect; the LinkedIn group; "like" Alumni Relations on Facebook; and join your Facebook Class Group (if applicable). Pull out your yearbook and encourage your classmates to join you at Reunion.

Reunion Class Gift
You have the opportunity to help today’s students grow academically, spiritually and personally by making a gift to The Assumption Fund. As part of your class special reunion gift, you will help fund scholarships, academic programs and support services that are a vital part of current students’ Assumption experience... just as they were for you. Please consider making an increased gift in honor of your reunion.

You can make your reunion gift with your Reunion registration or by visiting the College’s online giving site at www.assumption.edu/donate.

RSVP by June 6 for special “early bird” rates!
