

Nicholas A. Marshall MS, PA-C

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assumption College

Worcester, Ma (April 2019 - Present)

Assistant Professor

Director of Didactic Education Physician Assistant Studies

Oversees didactic portion of PA studies program

Designs and implements student curriculum in accordance with ARC-PA standards of accreditation

Coordinate, assist and assess didactic faculty

Administration and organization of program in conjunction with Program Director.

UMass Memorial Medical Center

Worcester, Ma (November 2011 – Present)

(full time 11/2011 – 4/2019, Per Diem 4/2019 – Present)

Physician Assistant, Critical Care

Coordinator – Quality and Safety

Management of acute, critically ill patients in multiple medical/surgical ICU settings

Committee member: Sepsis, CUATI/CLASBI, Mortality, Critical Care/Documentation/Orders IWG

Member: Critical Care Affiliate Practitioner Executive Committee

Lecturer: Critical Care Affiliate Practitioner Residency

Critical Care liaison for New England Donor Services.

Epic super user

Northeastern University

Boston, Ma (January 2015 – Present)

Adjunct Faculty, Physician Assistant studies

Teach variety of topics within PA program

Assist Director of Didactic Education with test preparation and creation

Participate with group exams, educational session as needed.

Melrose-Wakefield Hospital

Melrose, Ma (June 2014-May 2016)

Per Diem Physician Assistant, Critical Care

Management of acute critically ill patient in mixed medical and surgical intensive care unit

Tufts Medical Center

Boston, MA (June 2010 – October 2011)

Physician Assistant, Cardiothoracic Surgery

Management of preoperative and postoperative cardiac surgery patients in a 10 bed ICU as well as step down unit.

New York Presbyterian Hospital – Columbia University Medical Center,

New York, NY (Feb. 2009 – May 2010)

Physician Assistant, Cardiothoracic Surgery

Management of patient care in a 30-bed cardiothoracic surgery step down unit, treatment of acute post-operative complications.

Northbridge Fire Department, Northbridge MA (June 2002 – June 2006)

Emergency Medical Technician-Intermediate/Firefighter/Dispatcher

Dispatcher

Answered and dispatched all emergency calls from central location. Dispatched emergency apparatus and personnel for both EMS and Fire.

EMT-I

ALS EMT providing public assistance, responding to patient aid.

Firefighter

First responder to fire and medical incidents, including various department calls.

LECTURER:

UMass Memorial Medical Center Affiliate Practitioner Residency 2016 - present
UMass Medical School Graduate School of Nursing 2014 - present
UMass Memorial Medical Center critical care symposium lecturer 2015, 2016
Johnson and Wales Physician Assistant program 2014
Fundamental Critical Care Support instructor 2013- present

EDUCATION:

Pace University – Lenox Hill Hospital Physician Assistant Program – NYC, New York, NY
Master of Science 2013
Bachelor of Science - Physician Assistant Studies (2006-2008)

Pace University, New York, NY
PA program prerequisite (2005-2006)

Quinsigamond Community College, Worcester, MA
Paramedic program – (2005)

Anna Maria College, Paxton, MA
Bachelor of Science – Biological Sciences. (2000-2004)

Publications

Cardiac Arrhythmias: Moving to the Beat of a Different Drummer
Physician Assist Clin 2 (2017) 589-602