Her ground-breaking book examines the lives of two extraordinary, religious women. Both Edith Stein and Regina Jonas were German Jewish women who demonstrated 'deviant' religious desires as they pursued their spiritual paths to serve their communities during the Holocaust.

Emily is a graduate of Bard College, Harvard Divinity School, and the Graduate Theological Union at Berkeley, Emily Leah Silverman teaches western religions at San Jose State University. She is also a co-author of Voices of Feminist Liberation (2014), an exploration of the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether, an American feminist scholar and Catholic theologian.

For more information, contact Dona Kercher at dkercher@assumption.edu