ROME SUMMER 2022

DIRECTOR/INSTRUCTOR: Richard Bonanno, Ph.D.

INSTRUCTOR: Jimmy Hauri, Ph.D.

PROGRAM DATES July 6, 2022 to August 6, 2022

COST $4,750 for three credits. (Airfare not included.)

EXCURSIONS Daytrips and local excursions are included. Options are a winery, an olive oil press, and a glacier. One overnight excursion to Florence and Tuscan is a planned.

FREE WEEKENDS Students will have two weekends for personal travel.

DINING The program includes breakfasts and dinners served in Villino Dufault and during group excursions. Lunches Monday through Thursday are included.

TRANSPORTATION Students will travel to Rome as a group, with Prof. Hauri serving as chaperone and meeting the group at Logan International Airport (BOS). Round-trip airfare from Logan to Fiumicino International Airport (FCO) must be purchased by students once the flight has been identified. The University will coordinate with a local travel agency to purchase tickets. Transfer to/from the Rome Campus and FCO will be provided to those students traveling with the group.

Students wishing to make their own travel arrangements may do so. They will arrange their own transport from the FCO airport, and must arrive at the Rome Campus on the official start date of July 6, 2022. These students must alert the Director of their itinerary.

Students will receive ATAC passes for unlimited public transport (bus and metro) within the city limits and are responsible for their safekeeping.

Curricular travel expenses and admission to museums and other venues will be provided.

BOOKS The program will provide all books for students.

PRE-DEPARTURE ORIENTATION A brief orientation will be held at the close of the Spring 2022 final examination period, and attendance is required.
