THE VALUE OF AN ASSUMPTION COLLEGE DEGREE IN HUMAN SERVICES AND REHABILITATION STUDIES

Assumption's Human Services and Rehabilitation Studies (HSRS) program will prepare you for a career that develops the potential and promotes the worth of all individuals. A distinct advantage is the unique, full-time, semester-long internship that all HSRS students are required to complete.

RECENT EMPLOYERS
- Community Healthlink
- Department of Children and Families
- Devereux School
- Jesuit Volunteers
- The Bridge
- The KEY Program

SAMPLE INTERNSHIP SITES
- Dismas Farm
- New England Center for Children (NECC)
- Rainbow Child Development Center
- Thom Early Intervention
- Why Me & Sherry’s House
- Worcester Juvenile Probation
- Worcester Public Schools

National Recognition
> Named by the Princeton Review as a Best College in the nation
> Ranked in the top tier of best regional universities by U.S. News & World Report
> Assumption’s Rome campus named a Top Ten study abroad program in America

CAREER DEVELOPMENT & INTERNSHIP CENTER
- 90+ employers participated in Career & Internship Fairs in the 2015-16 academic year
- 900+ individual student appointments with CDIC staff during the 2014-15 academic year
- 1,100+ jobs & internships posted in the 2014-15 academic year

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE CLASS OF 2015 STATS
- 96% HSRS majors who were employed or in grad school within six months of graduation
- 100% HSRS students who completed a 400-hour internship in a human service setting
- 6-in-5 Highly qualified undergrads can work toward a master’s degree in Rehabilitation Counseling during senior year, completing bachelor’s and master’s in five years

LEARN MORE AT WWW.ASSUMPTION.EDU/HSRS