FEDERAL DIRECT LOAN GUIDE

As part of your financial aid offer, you were awarded Federal Direct Loan(s). These loans do not require you to have a co-signer but do require at least half-time attendance (6 credits per semester) while enrolled in college. Federal Direct Loans can be subsidized or unsubsidized, your eligibility of which is determined by information provided on the FAFSA.

Federal Direct Subsidized Loans are interest free while the student is enrolled at least half-time. Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans will begin accruing interest from the time of disbursement. The student may opt to pay this interest while enrolled.

For more information on Federal Direct Loans, current interest rates and origination fees, please visit <https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/types/loans/subsidized-unsubsidized>. The loan origination fees are deducted proportionately each time a loan disbursement is made to the student's account.

How To Reduce or Decline Your Direct Loan Funding

If you wish to decline or reduce your Federal Direct Student loan(s), complete the Federal Loan Reduction or Cancellation Request Form available on the Forms and Documents section of our website: www.assumption.edu/FAforms.

How To Secure Your Direct Loan Funding

Please note, Federal Direct Loans will appear on your billing statement ONLY if you have completed the Entrance Counseling and signed the Master Promissory Note.

1. Go to <https://studentaid.gov/mpn/> and follow the directions to complete your Master Promissory Note as an undergraduate student.
2. Go to <https://studentaid.gov/entrance-counseling/> and follow the directions to complete your Entrance Counseling as an undergraduate student.
3. You will receive confirmation emails informing you these steps were completed successfully and this information will be forward to our office by the Department of Education.
