

Dan Goodrich Joins Murphy & King as Shareholder, Bringing Comprehensive Experience in Complex Litigation Across Multiple Industries

Murphy & King, P.C. is pleased to announce that Dan Goodrich, a seasoned litigator with a distinguished background in commercial and business litigation, has joined the firm as a shareholder. Dan will bring his substantial experience in high-stakes litigation and government investigations to enhance the firm's litigation capabilities, focusing on all stages of commercial disputes, white collar defense, and complex litigation matters.

Dan has successfully represented clients in a range of industries, including government contracting, construction, real estate, and health care. His extensive litigation practice includes handling breach of contract cases, defamation, commercial disparagement, False Claims Act, and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act cases. Additionally, he regularly counsels corporate clients and prominent individuals involved in government investigations and enforcement actions, defending against charges such as wire fraud, insider trading, and violations of the CAN-SPAM Act. Dan's experience also encompasses appellate representation and managing multifaceted construction-related disputes. Prior to joining the firm, Dan practiced in the Boston office at an Am Law 100 firm.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dan to Murphy & King," said Dan Rabinovitz, shareholder at Murphy & King and co-manager of the firm's Litigation Department. "His dedication to advocating for clients in complex litigation and his experience navigating high-stakes government investigations make him an exceptional addition to our team. Dan's skills align well with our firm's commitment to delivering top-tier legal counsel across a wide range of industries."

Dan commented on his new role, saying, "I am honored to join Murphy & King as a shareholder and look forward to working with such a talented team. I am eager to leverage my experience in commercial litigation and government enforcement matters to serve the firm's clients. Murphy & King has a reputation for excellence in litigation, and I am excited to contribute to its continued success."

Dan received his J.D. from Suffolk University and his B.A., cum laude, from Assumption University.
